A MASS SETTING

In Advent, we began using the St. Augustine Hymnal at Mass. Over the past few months it seems that everyone is getting acquainted with the new hymnal. It takes a little bit of time to figure out the readings, hymns, and ribbons. In Lent, we used the standard English Chant setting of the Mass, which is included in the hymnal.

Over the summer we are going to introduce another Mass setting. You may wonder, what is a “Mass setting”? In the Mass, there are parts of the Mass called the Ordinary. These parts of the Mass never change. A few examples are the Holy, Holy, Holy, Creed, the Our Father, the dialogues (“The Lord be with you” and “with your spirit”), and the Penitential Act. Other parts of the Mass that change each week are called the Propers. These parts of the Mass are “proper” to each Mass. For example, the biblical readings and the communion antiphon are some of the Propers.

Some of the Ordinary parts of the Mass are set to music and composers utilize similar themes and melodies. Maybe you never noticed this. Composers will set the Gloria, Holy Holy Holy, Memorial Acclamation, Great Amen, and Lamb of God to similar melodies. This is what we call a Mass Setting.

All of this explanation is to let you know that over the summer, we are going to learn a new Mass Setting, which is included in the St. Augustine Hymnal. We'll take it in small pieces, learning the Holy, Holy, Holy, next weekend and adding another part of the Mass each week. To help us learn the Mass setting, we will be introducing it before Mass each week and send out a recording the week before with the Couch Chat.

We will be using the Mass of Wisdom. This is a popular setting in area parishes, so you may have heard it before. It should be easy to learn, but it may be a little difficult at first. When learning a new Mass setting, the axiom, “Repetition is the Mother of all Learning,” holds true. Over time, we will master this music and it will become second nature for us to sing. It will take some work and some time to get there.

Remember this week that Fr. Scott Brossart, SOLT will be present for the event entitled “Healing Encounter with Christ in the Eucharist.” There are more details on page 6 of the bulletin.

In other news, I would like to ask for some prayers for my family. Last Saturday, June 1, my brother and his wife, who live in Connecticut, welcomed a baby boy into the family. Miles Robert Wilson was born two weeks early and was born with a heart condition. He was diagnosed with the heart condition a few months ago, so they gave birth at a hospital next to Boston's Children's Hospital.

As I write these words on Tuesday, June 4, Miles is undergoing open-heart surgery. I hope that by the time you read this, he is recovering well with his parents and two-year-old sister. Please keep him and his family in your prayers. It will take some time for him to recover from the operation. Thank you for your prayers.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Sean Wilson

Get to Know Our Stephen Ministers

Introducing Therese Fahncke, one of the newest Stephen Ministers, commissioned in February of this year. "I discerned the call to become a Stephen Minister to walk with those seeking hope in times of despair and a newfound peace and joy following loss, change, betrayal or any number of hurts and disappointments in life. I myself had to come to grips with a major change in my life after my sons left for college and the house became very quiet, particularly without someone playing the piano at all hours of the day! Change can bring much joy, however; my husband and I have been blessed as grandparents and are able to enjoy spending significant time with our twin granddaughters after raising two sons."

Contact Pam Coon (419)-302-0119 or Eric Elsass (419)-234-3029 for more information about Stephen Ministry, or learn more by scanning this QR code.

"Very bread, good Shepherd, tend us,
Jesu, of Your love befriend us,
You refresh us, You defend us,
Your eternal goodness send us
In the land of life to see."

Weekly Saint/Pope Quote

"The Lord manifests Himself in those who stop for some time in peace and humility of heart. If you look in murky and turbulent waters, you cannot see the reflection of your face. If you want to see the face of Christ, stop and collect your thoughts in silence, and close the door of your soul to the noise of external things."

Scammers Impersonating Fr. Sean

Please be aware that scammers are reaching out to parishioners and impersonating Fr. Sean. They may send a text or email that says something like: "Hi, please return my text when you get it. I have a favor to ask. - Fr. Sean Wilson." "Are you available? I have a request for you to manage discreetly." "I am currently busy in a prayer session, no calls just reply to my email." If you engage with the scammer, they will likely ask for iTunes gift cards. This is not Fr. Sean. He will never ask for iTunes gift cards or send messages like this. If you're ever questioning a message, please call the parish office before responding. If you've been scammed, ignore the message (or report it as a "phishing message") and say a prayer for the scammer.
